Men Who Are Candidates and
Men Who Are Not and What People Say.

As one of Chicago's leading financiers and business men, Albert G. Wheeler justly deserves the high place he holds in the estimation of the people.

Judge Charles A. Williams is making a fine record on the Municipal Court bench. It is able and conscientious men like Williams that the people need on the bench.

William Schumacher, the popular Western manager for Rudolph Oelsner, stands in the front ranks of Chicago's leading business men.

Albert J. Hopkins for Vice President in 1912 is a popular slogan among Republicans throughout Illinois.

Judge John R. Caverly is one of the ablest, hardest working and best liked men on the Municipal Court bench.

Albert G. Wheeler has won by his record as a financier, a business man and a public spirited citizen, the admiration of everybody.

M. J. Faherty, the well known real estate man, stands foremost among Chicago's leading business men and public spirited citizens.

James S. Hopkins, the able and highly esteemed attorney, would grace a seat on the bench.

It is about time that the state of Illinois came to the rescue of the people and passed a law prohibiting the misuse of the name bank.

As matters stand at present, anyone with money enough to hire and equip a store can paint the name bank on the front windows and solicit and receive deposits without let or hindrance.

Every year hundreds of people lose their savings through the failure or collapse of one or more of these wildcat institutions.

Legitimate banks which are in themselves a guarantee of security, are passed by by thousands of simple and gullible people who are charmed by the advertisements and cunning alluresments of men who never did any legitimate banking and who never intended to do any.

The Chicago Eagle has often referred to this matter before and it again urges upon the legislature and upon men who are seeking seats in the general assembly, the necessity for passing a law protecting legitimate banks and prohibiting illegitimate ones.

People who have been helping the telephone company to pay eight per cent stock dividends and to erect twenty story buildings want telephone rates reduced.

This is a good year to infuse new blood into the Municipal Court.

Andrew J. Ryan, the well-known lawyer and former city attorney, stands high in the estimation of all Chicagoans both as a lawyer and as a citizen.

The phone company talks as if the city was its private property.

Albert J. Hopkins, the popular former United States Senator, will take a foremost part in the big campaign this year.

Bust the Elgin Butter Trust.

Col. James Hamilton Lewis has the support of every good Democrat in his campaign for United States Senator.

Most of the Municipal Judges who seek re-election this year should be retired to private life.

The telephone trust must go.

No imported beer on the market today has met with greater success than that handled by August Luchow. The Original Pilsener, from Pilsen, Bohemia, is sold by this big concern, as is also the famous Würzburger Hofbräu from Würzburg, Bavaria. These beers are the favorites at Chicago's leading clubs, restaurants and buffets. They are without a peer. The Chicago offices of August Luchow are located in the Stock Exchange building, 30 North LaSalle street and are under the management of Hans Luchow. Mr. Luchow has made a splendid record for the business in the West and he enjoys a widespread popularity among Chicago's leading business men and citizens.
